BOOKS
aren't just made of WORDS... they're also filled with PLACES
to visit and
PEOPLE
to meet.

Fifth and sixth graders are beginning to see themselves in a new light. They are gaining independence in their thinking and choices. Stories about home and school are still popular, as are those about young people who live in very different times and places. Children in fifth and sixth grades also appreciate more sophisticated fantasy. Books continue to provide a safe and nurturing place to try out new ideas and adventures for school-age readers.
